

School of Elderly

Bhajans, news, old songs. All on YouTube.

Free videos on every topic — bhajans, cooking, exercise, news, old films, devotional content. YouTube is the world's biggest video library, and it's free.

WHAT'S INSIDE

- ✓ Search any video
- ✓ Save videos to watch later
- ✓ Subscribe to favorite channels

— WHY THIS MATTERS

Anything you want to watch — YouTube has it.

YouTube has billions of videos in every language. Hindi devotional songs, Telugu serial episodes, exercise for seniors, old films, Marathi recipes — all of it. All free.

You don't need to subscribe to anything. Just open the app and search.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Search for any video
- Watch and control playback
- Save to 'Watch Later'
- Subscribe to favorite channels

 Takes about 5 minutes to read

1

STEP 1 OF 6

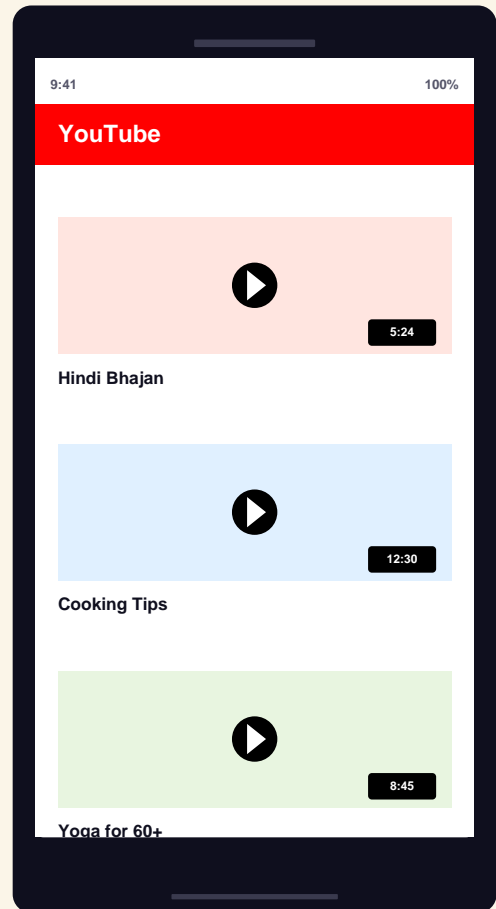

Open YouTube

Find the YouTube app — a red rectangle with a white triangle inside.

Tap to open. It's already installed on most Android phones. If not, free from Play Store.

TIP

First time, you can sign in with a Google account. This saves your watch history. But you can also use it without signing in.

2

STEP 2 OF 6

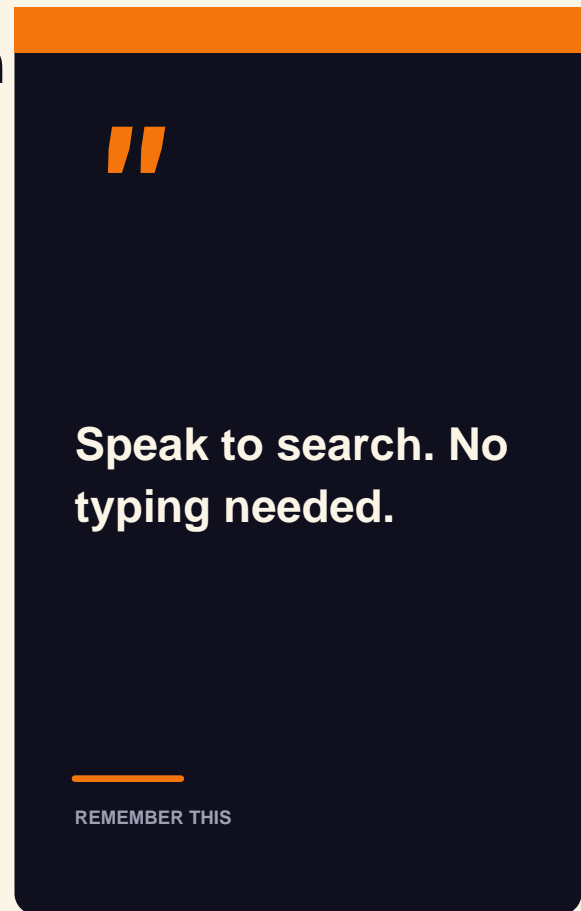

Tap the search icon

Look at the top-right of YouTube — a small magnifying glass icon.

Tap it. The keyboard opens. Type what you want to watch.

● TIP

You can also tap the microphone and speak — 'Hanuman chalisa' or 'rasam recipe'.

3

STEP 3 OF 6

Search in your language

Type or speak in any language:

- Hindi devotional songs
- Telugu cooking recipes
- Old Lata Mangeshkar songs
- Yoga for senior citizens

YouTube shows videos in the language you searched.

● TIP

Add 'in Hindi' or 'in Telugu' to your search if you want regional language videos. Like 'cooking in Telugu'.

4

STEP 4 OF 6

Tap a video to play

Search results show video thumbnails (small images). Each shows:

- Title
- Channel name (who made it)
- How many views (popular = trustworthy)
- Duration

Tap any video. It starts playing.

● TIP

Videos with 1 million+ views are usually the popular trusted ones. Skip videos with very few views.

5

STEP 5 OF 6

Control the video

While watching:

- Tap the screen ONCE to see controls
- Tap the pause button to pause
- Drag the progress bar to skip ahead
- Tap full-screen icon to make it bigger

Tap screen again or wait — controls disappear.

● TIP

Rotate your phone sideways to make videos full-screen automatically. Bigger picture, easier to watch.

6

STEP 6 OF 6

Save and subscribe

If you like a video:

- Tap 'Save' to add to 'Watch Later'
- Tap the bell icon to get notified of new videos
- Tap 'Subscribe' to follow a channel

Your subscribed channels show on the home page first.

TIP

Subscribe to 5-10 channels you like. They'll fill your home page with new videos every day. No more searching.

QUICK RECAP

YouTube made simple.

1

Free. No sign-in needed.

You don't need to make an account. Just open and search. (But signing in saves history.)

2

Search in your language

Hindi, Telugu, Tamil, Marathi — type or speak in any language. Results come in your language.

3

Popular = trustworthy

Videos with millions of views are usually high quality. Avoid videos with very few views.

4

Rotate phone for full screen

Turn phone sideways while watching. Video becomes full-screen — much easier to see.

5

Subscribe to favorites

Found a channel you love? Subscribe. Their new videos show up on your home page.
