— WHY THIS MATTERS

News in your pocket. In your language. All day.

News apps deliver fresh news to your phone every minute. No waiting for the morning paper. No flipping through TV channels.

And you can pick what news you want — local news, sports, politics, Bollywood, religion. Skip what you don't care about.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Pick a trusted news app
- Read news in your language
- Save articles for later
- Spot fake news

 Takes about 5 minutes to read

STEP 1 OF 6

Pick a trusted news app

Use ONLY established news apps:

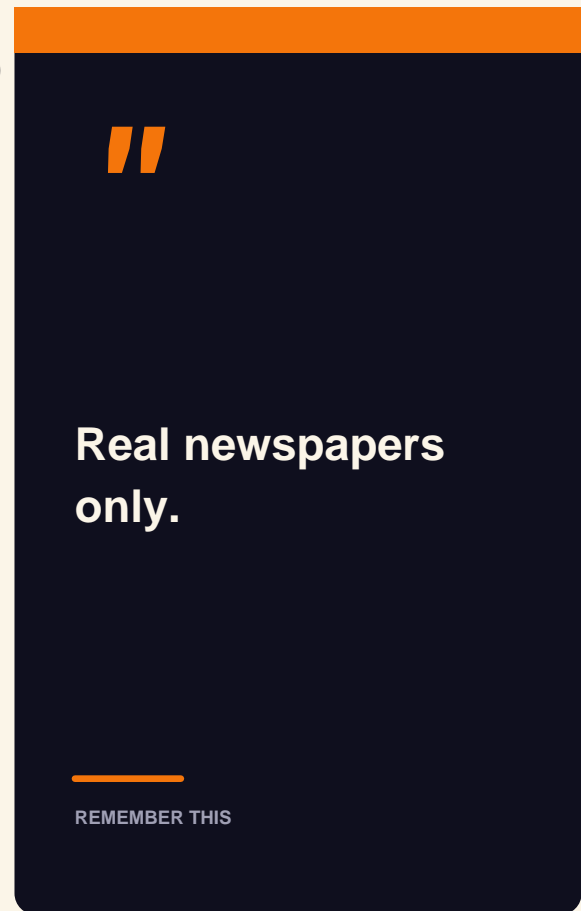

- Times of India
- Inshorts (60-word summaries)
- Daily Hunt (multi-language)
- NDTV
- Hindustan Times

These are real newspapers. Not random apps.

WARNING

Many fake news apps exist with attractive names. Stick to apps from real, named news organizations. Avoid apps you've never heard of.

STEP 2 OF 6

Set your language

First time opening, the app asks 'Which language?'

Pick: English, Hindi, Telugu, Tamil, Marathi, Bengali, Malayalam, Kannada, Gujarati, Punjabi — most are available. Daily Hunt is best for regional languages.

● TIP

You can pick MULTIPLE languages. Read English news for politics, Hindi for entertainment, etc.

STEP 3 OF 6

Pick categories

After language, the app asks what you care about:

- Politics
- Sports
- Bollywood
- Business
- Local (your city)
- Religion / Devotional
- Health

Pick 3-5. Skip the rest. Less clutter.

● TIP

Always pick 'Local' or your city's name — local news is most relevant to you.

STEP 4 OF 6

Read with simple swipes

The app shows news cards. Each is a short story.

- Tap to read full article
- Swipe LEFT or RIGHT to next/previous story
- Swipe DOWN to refresh (get newer stories)

Stop when you've read enough. Come back later for more.

● TIP

Inshorts gives you 60-word summaries. Perfect if you don't want to read long articles.

STEP 5 OF 6

Recognize fake news

Some news is fake. Signs to watch for:

- Headlines in ALL CAPS or with too many !!!
- Headlines that say 'You won't believe this!'
- Stories asking you to share or forward
- No source mentioned
- News only on WhatsApp, not on real apps

WARNING

If a news story makes you very angry or scared, pause. Real news rarely shocks. Check on Times of India or NDTV. If they don't have it — it's probably fake.

Big emotion = big chance of fake.

REMEMBER THIS

STEP 6 OF 6

Save articles to read later

Found something interesting but no time now? Look for a BOOKMARK icon — usually a small flag or ribbon shape.

Tap it. The article saves in 'Bookmarks' or 'Reading List'. Read it later when you have time.

TIP

Build a reading list during the day. Read while waiting for tea, or before bed.

---

QUICK RECAP

News, your way.

Trusted apps only

Times of India, NDTV, Hindustan Times, Inshorts, Daily Hunt. Skip random unknown apps.

Pick your language

Read in Hindi, Telugu, Tamil, English — whichever you prefer. Most apps support all.

Pick what you care about

Politics, sports, local — choose 3-5 categories. Skip the rest. Less clutter.

Big emotion = fake warning

If a headline shocks you — pause. Check it on a trusted app. If only one place has it, it's probably fake.

Bookmark for later

No time now? Tap the bookmark icon. Article saves to your reading list for later.
